Sub : Un-subscription of promotional mails

CC has been receiving complaints from users that huge number of unwanted marketing mails are received in their inbox. Many times we knowingly / unknowingly give email addresses while surfing some of the websites like education, shopping etc. These emails are collected by some of the email marketing agencies and they start sending all marketing mails to our email id.

The most effective way to combat such marketing mails is to unsubscribe such mails received in the inbox. These mails usually contain “unsubscribe” / “go here to end” / “hit end” / “Opt-out” at the bottom of mail body to delist from that group.

Please refer to the sample templates given in the next page.

1. Open the marketing mails one by one
2. DO NOT CLICK on any of the main body links OR give your login credentials anywhere
3. Look for options (mostly near the end / footer of the email body) to unsubscribe / opt-out of such marketing campaign & Click on the options where arrows are pointing to for unsubscribing **###
4. Some mails may take you to a second page for confirmation. Please click on the ‘UNSUBSCRIBE’ button *******
5. After the above click, you will be presented a page of successful unsubscription **&&&
6. The bulk of marketing mails arriving to your inbox will be stopped.
7. You will have to repeat the steps 1 to 5 in each marketing mail at least for a week.
